THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S. RAO

WRIT PETITION No.10493 of 2006

ORDER:

The petitioner allegedly purchased land admeasuring Ac.1.20 guntas in survey No.650 part situated at Vampuguda Village, Keesara Mandal in Ranga Reddy District from the fourth respondent and one Peesari Satti Reddy under registered agreement for sale-cum-irrevocable General Power of Attorney bearing document No.1141/2001 dated
01-03-2001 and land admeasuring Acs.2.00 in survey No.60 part of the said Village from the fourth respondent under registered agreement for sale-cum-irrevocable General Power of Attorney bearing document No.1142/2001 dated 01-03-2001. He states that he sold the entire property to one Chakradhar Malkapalli and others under registered sale deed bearing document No.66/2006 dated 04-01-2006. He alleges that the fourth respondent got the sale deed bearing document No.66/2006 dated 04-01-2006 cancelled by executing cancellation deed bearing document No.4330/2006 dated 22-05-2006 and also got the agreements for sale-cum-irrevocable General Power of Attorneys bearing document Nos.1141 and 1142 of 2001 dated 01-03-2001 cancelled by executing cancellation deed bearing document No.4331/2006 dated 22-05-2006 and the third respondent registered the said cancellation deeds without his notice. Therefore, in this writ petition, he seeks a writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the Registering Authority in registering the cancellation deeds bearing document Nos.4330 and 4331 of 2006 dated 22-05-2006 duly cancelling the sale deed bearing document No.66/2006 dated 04-01-2006 and the agreements for sale-cum-irrevocable General Power of Attorneys bearing document Nos.1141 and 1142 of 2001 dated 01-03-2001 as illegal and arbitrary.

A Full Bench of this Court in Yanala Malleshwari and others v. Smt. Ananthula Sayamma and others[1], laid down as under.

> The person, who has ex facie right whether such right is registered or not can always approach the registering authority, with a request to cancel a sale deed, which was registered earlier by such registering authority by showing that subsequent registration was obtained by fraud by a person who is not entitled to transfer the property or that such transfer was registered by playing fraud on the owner or on the stranger. In the present statutory dispensation, namely Transfer of Property Act, Contract Act, Specific Relief Act and Registration Act, the Court does not see any prohibition operating on the exercise of inherent power by the registering authority to cancel the sale deed earlier registered, which is likely to cause prejudice to the true owner as well as to the entire public at large.

The Full Bench also considered the question whether the writ petition is maintainable for invalidation of cancellation deed or for cancellation of an instrument, which purports to nullify the sale deed registered earlier. Referring to case law, Full Bench observed as under.

> That disputed questions of fact cannot be gone into in a writ petition is axiomatic. A copious reference to case law is not necessary. As pointed out earlier, among many; it is one of the limitations on the exercise of power of judicial review… … … Therefore, this Court is of considered opinion that the parties should be relegated to the civil Court to file suit either under Section 31 or under Section 34 of Specific Relief Act. Point No.2 is answered accordingly.

Following the same, this writ petition is dismissed observing that the petitioner may approach the civil Court and file a suit either under Section 31 or under Section 34 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963. It may also be noted that as and when the petitioner files the suit, the civil Court has to decide the disputed questions of fact without in any manner being influenced by the decision of the Full Bench in Yanala Malleshwari (supra) or this order.
